		~900,000 KRW	~646 USD

* Payment should be made through KRW. The USD exchange rate is stated only for reference.

 All costs are subject to change without prior notice.

2. Health Insurance

All of POSTECH's prospective students MUST join or purchase one of the following three insurance plans:

- 1) Health insurance plan of their home country that covers most illnesses or injuries in a foreign land (i.e. Korea). In this case, applicants must submit a document of verification to International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) prior to their arrival at POSTECH.

- 2) National Health Insurance Service (NHIS). From March 2021, all international students who stay in Korea for six months or longer must sign up for a compulsory social insurance, NHIS(National Health Insurance Service), by Korean law. NHIS provides a wide range of coverage for various injuries and illnesses. Furthermore, instead of getting reimbursed afterwards, patients can pay the discounted amount from the start at the medical institutions.
- 3) Korean Private Health Insurance. Students are required to pay approximately 200,000 ~ 250,000 KRW per year. Please note that the Korean Private Health Insurance covers fewer illnesses and injuries than NHIS. Also, unlike NHIS, patients are required to pay the entire amount at the medical institutions, and then get a certain amount of reimbursement by submitting required evidential documents.

3. Financial Aid

■ External Financial Aid

▶ POSCO Asia Fellowship

POSCO TJ Park Foundation operates 「POSCO Asia Fellowship」 program to support young prospective intellectuals to grow as global leaders through natural sciences and engineering's master's or doctoral courses in Korea.

- 1) Who should apply: Asian students who are applying for master's or doctoral degree
- 2) When to apply: To be announced
- 3) Where to apply: POSCO TJ Park Foundation website(www.postf.org)

Please refer to our website for more information about the Foundation and Program.

▶ Global Korea Scholarship Program (GKS)

The Global Korea Scholarship Program is designed to support international students pursuing higher education in Korea, with the aim of promoting international exchange in education, as well as mutual friendship amongst the participating countries. POSTECH is one of the designated universities in Korea, and the application period is from February to March every year.

Applicants can choose to apply for GKS through one of the following two tracks:

- 1) University Track: Applying to POSTECH directly and then being recommended to GKS
- 2) Embassy Track: Being recommended by the Korean Embassy at the applicant's country to designated universities

Please keep an eye on the notice board of our website (<https://adm-g.postech.ac.kr/ENG/category/board/notice/>) or the government website (<http://studyinkorea.go.kr/en/main.do>) for further updates.

■ Internal Financial Aid

▶ POSTECH Teaching or Research Assistantship (TA/RA)

Available to graduate students who are selected as teaching or research assistants by their advisors. It is mostly mandatory for students but may be different depending on each department's regulation. Living allowance, tuition fee and dormitory fee would be covered by this assistantship.

▶ POSTECH Settlement Allowance for New International Students

Eligible to incoming international graduate students from the outside of Korea who have not lived in Korea for 6 months before admission. It is specially separated from the other internal scholarships, and covers settlement allowance as well as air fare (subsidy). The exit and entry record will be checked upon admission to confirm the eligibility.

※ The amount and eligibility criteria are subject to change without prior notice.

▶ Ruth Satter Scholarship

The Ruth Satter Scholarship is established by Professor Youngsook Lee, currently a Professor Emeritus at POSTECH, who served in the Department of Life Sciences at POSTECH. The Scholarship aims to contribute to the academic advancement in the field of science and engineering by providing financial support to international female graduate students. It is operated in gratitude for the favor of the late Dr. Satter, who was Professor Lee's advisor.

1) Eligibility: Newly admitted Asian female international graduate students

2) Scholarship Benefit

- KRW 5,000,000/year (KRW 2,500,000/semester)

- Maximum 1 year for Master's/Maximum 2 years for Ph.D. and MS-Ph.D. Integrated

3) Number of Selection: 3 students per a year

Appendix 1: Frequently Asked Questions

◎ Application

Q1: I am in my last semester of bachelor's/master's degree. Am I eligible to apply for the master's/doctoral degree for the following semester?

Applicants who are in their last semester of bachelor's or master's degree are eligible of applying for the enrollment of the following semester under the condition that their bachelor's/master's degree will be awarded before they enroll at POSTECH.

Q2: Do I have to send the documents that I uploaded during the online application process by post?

The documents applicants uploaded online will be printed out by the Graduate Admissions and Student Affairs Office. Therefore, applicants only need to send the aforementioned documents listed in "Submit Required Documents by Post."

Q3: How do I pay the application fee online?

Applicants must pay the application fee via credit card. However, if applicants have problems with making their payment online via credit card, follow the following instructions:

1) Install payment system program (Active X).

2) POSTECH's payment system (LG U+) adopts 3D-Secure authentication via VISA or MASTER. If you have a card that does not obtain 3D-Secure authentication, payment is not possible. Therefore, applicants should apply the 3D-Secure authentication to their card firm in order to be able to make the payments.

Q4: What if I want to revise my online application?

Applicants are able to save and revise their online application until the application deadline, even if they finalized the application and paid the application fee. After the deadline is over, it is no longer possible for applicants to edit their application.

Q5: I am currently a prospective graduate. When do I have to submit my degree certificate?

Applicants who are not able to submit their degree certificate/certificate of graduation at the stage of their online application because they are prospective graduates are required to submit the provisional letter/certificate of graduation including the institute's official seal to Admissions Office first, and afterwards submit the original copy of the degree certificate before the date of admission.

◎ Language Proficiency

Q1: What if I do not meet the required score for English proficiency?

Since POSTECH's language of instruction is mainly English, prospective students must reach an average level of English proficiency. Therefore, all applicants are required to prove their English proficiency through an official test or either a document that proves the instruction language of applicants' institution. Refer to the contents of "Eligibility" previously.

Q2: Is the Institutional Testing Program (ITP) hosted by institutions other than POSTECH acceptable?

ITP held by other institutions is not acceptable when applying to POSTECH's graduate program. Only that hosted by POSTECH is valid.

Q3: Can other English Proficiency Tests (e.g. GRE) substitute the English Proficiency Tests listed previously?

No other English Proficiency Tests can substitute the English Proficiency Tests listed previously. You have to acquire the minimum score of at least one of the previously indicated tests. However, if you do possess other English Proficiency Score or certificates, you can submit them along with the compulsory requirements.

Q4: How can I get a document for "Proof of Instruction Language"?

Applicants whose institution performs all of the lectures in English are qualified to substitute the English Proficiency Test with a document that verifies the institution's instruction language. If the applicant's institution does not have such an official document, he/she can submit other documents (e.g. transcript, enrollment certificate, etc.) with the institution's original seal and the following phrase: "It is hereby verified that the instruction language of (institution's name) is English."

Q5: Do I have to be proficient in the Korean language?

Korean Language Proficiency is not an essential requirement for application. However, applicants who have minimum capacity in Korean can be preferred.
